The Board of Directors of the International Business Brokers Association ® (IBBA ®) (<http://www.ibba.org/>) voted unanimously to approve Joe D. Lindsey as Chairman of the 2010 IBBA Credentialing Committee. The IBBA ® is a trade association of business brokers providing education, conferences, professional designations and networking opportunities.

Formed in 1983, the IBBA is the largest non-profit association specifically formed to meet the needs of people and firms engaged in various aspects of business brokerage, and mergers and acquisitions. Today, the IBBA has more than 1,500 members in all parts of the world.

Joe is a member of TABB and has earned its Board Certified Broker (BCB) certification. From 2006 through 2008, he served as a three-term President of the Dallas/Fort Worth Chapter and was a member of TABB's State Board of Directors for the same period. Joe is currently serving his sixth year as a member of the Board of Directors of TABB's Dallas-Fort Worth Chapter.

Joe is a member of the M&A Source and is a former member of its Credentialing Committee. The M&A Source is the world's largest association of Middle Market Intermediaries.

Joe is a Deal Team member at Dailey Resources Inc. (<http://www.daileyresources.com/>) in North Richland Hills, TX. His professional practice is dedicated to sell side and buy side representations of lower middle market transactions of businesses within a variety of industries including the manufacturing, distribution, health care, and service sectors. He is licensed as a Texas Real Estate Agent (LREA).
